

NEW HONEYMOON FOR "ICE KING" MORSE AND WIFE

Bride Showered with Flowers and
Hailed by Thousands as the Queen of Spain.

At the left of the altar arose a throne upon a raised dais, over which hung a majestic canopy of light silk, exquisitely wrought with gold embroideries. At the back of the throne flamed the arms of Spain. Two richly gilded arm-chairs of marvellous workmanship occupied the dais, on which also rested two soft, silken cushions upon which the bridal couple knelt.

Immediately facing the throne were gilded divans, on which were seated Queen Christina, Princess Henry of Battenberg, the Infantas, the Princes and the members of the Battenberg and other royal families. Beside them were the foreign Princes, Archdukes and Granddukes in their richest court uniforms, with the Princesses and Duchesses in marvellous court gowns.
